

We have posted all the winners in the various categories of the 2010 Scovie Awards here. Congrats to all the winners, and especially to Grand Prize--Tasting Division, New York's Pleasant Valley Kitchen Company for their Sugar and Spice Sweet Sauce. Despite the mild sounding name, the sauce won its division in the Habanero Hot Sauce category as well as the Grand Prize! The top award in the Advertising and Marketing Division went to Toluca Gourmet for their Toluca Gourmet Salsa Casera packaging. In about a week, we will be launching a new website devoted completely to the Scovie Awards and the business of fiery foods and barbecue.
